3 volumes. $300.00

FIRST and ONLY EDITION; a valuable, definitive study. Volume I consists of an "Estudo histórico, codicológico, paleográfico e índices" by Isabel Cid. Volume II contains her transcription of the text of the original manuscript, dated 1635, in the Biblioteca Pública e Arquivo Distrital de Évora. Volume III contains the 48 separate color plates, of a very good quality, depicting plans of fortalezas. Among those represented are Sofala, Mozambique, Mombaça, Mascate, Diu, Damão, Trapor, Baçaim, Bombaim e Caranja, Morro de Chaul, Chaul, Cananor, Cranganor, Cochim, Meliapor, Malacca, Macau, and Solor. Now out of print, and "searched for".

Definitive Bibliography of Early Rio de Janeiro Printing

*2. CAMARGO, Ana Maria de Almeida, and Rubens Borba de Moraes. Bibliografia da Impressão Régia do Rio de Janeiro (1808-1822). São Paulo: Editora da Universidade de São Paulo / Livraria Kosmos, 1993. Folio (27 x 20.5 cm.), publisher's illustrated boards with dust jackets. Slight wear to dust jackets. Overall in very good condition; very fine internally. xxxii pp., (1 l.), 430 pp.; xvii pp., (1 l.), 248 pp., many facsimiles of title pages in text. ISBN: 85-314-0181-X. $200.00

FIRST and ONLY EDITION of this important bibliography, a thorough revision and expansion of Alfredo do Valle Cabral's classic Annaes da Imprensa Nacional do Rio de Janeiro de 1808 a 1822 (Rio de Janeiro, 1881). Valle Cabral listed 1,251 items published in Rio de Janeiro at the Impressão Régia prior to 1823. Almeida Camargo and Borba de Moraes have newly described no fewer than 897 additional publications, bringing the total to 2,148 items. Since virtually no printing was done in Brazil prior to 1808, and the Impressão Régia had few rivals prior to 1823, this new bibliography describes the great majority of early Brazilian imprints.

The Bibliografia is divided into two volumes: volume I describes 1,428 books, pamphlets and periodicals, and volume II covers 720 royal decrees, laws, and other government documents. Each item is fully described, with transcriptions of title-page and imprint or colophon, collation, contents, helpful annotations, references, and locations of copies examined in important Brazilian and Portuguese collections.

FIRST EDITIONS. Borba had never seen a copy of the first edition of the second volume. This set has the first issue of volume IV, with the original third leaf rather than the cancel leaf usually encountered.

This collection has many fascinating and important works on Brazil, including a letter by José de Anchieta, S.J., on São Paulo; Jeronymo de Albuquerque's notes on Maranhão; descriptions of the Madeira, Amazon and Negro rivers, and of Bahia and Grão Pará. There are also accounts of voyages by Cadamosto, Cabral, Vespucci and Magalhães, as well as a work on Ceylon. Many of the texts are published here for the first time.

The six folding tables in volume VI are numbered IV, IV-A, V, VI, VII and VIII. Borba calls for six folding tables, unnumbered. They are not mentioned in any of the other references consulted, except for Azevedo Samodães, which refers to "algumas ff. desdobraveis". We have been informed that the two copies of volume VI of this work at the Harvard University Library both contain six folding tables numbered as in the present copy. One of the sets at Harvard conforms exactly to the collation of the present one. The other has volume II in the second edition, and volume IV in the second issue.

* Borba de Moraes (1983) I, 189-190: giving the date of the second edition of vol. II, but not the first; giving the date of vol. V, part 1 as 1839 rather than 1836: describes the collection as "becoming scarce"; with a complete list of the contents; cf. the minor differences in the collation given by Borba and that given for our set, above. Innocência II, 87-88. Leclerc, Biblioteca Americana (1878) 126. Rodrigues 658 (lacking volume V, and with volume II in the second edition). Monteverde 1653. Azevedo-Samodães 800. Avila Perez 1842. Palacio de Correio-Velho, Biblioteca de Suas Majestades El-Rei D. Carlos I e El-Rei D. Manuel II (1989), 3 (the present collection). NUC: DLC (1812-1814 [sic?], 7 vols.).
