SPECIAL LIST 502
TEN WORKS BY
ANTONIO BOTTO
RECENTLY ACQUIRED

António Botto

António [Thomas] Botto (1897-1959), was a member of the first group of Modernists in Portugal. His poetry has been described as some of the most original in the Portuguese language (Casais Monteiro, Poesía portuguesa contemporânea p. 177), and Botto himself as “uma das realidades definitivas e de primeira fila na intelectualidade portuguesa” (Grande enciclopédia, IV, 988). Although his works caused an uproar when first published, Botto was the first openly homosexual Portuguese writer, he was soon accepted in the avant-garde literary magazines, and eventually in mainstream publications.

Albino Forjaz de Sampaio

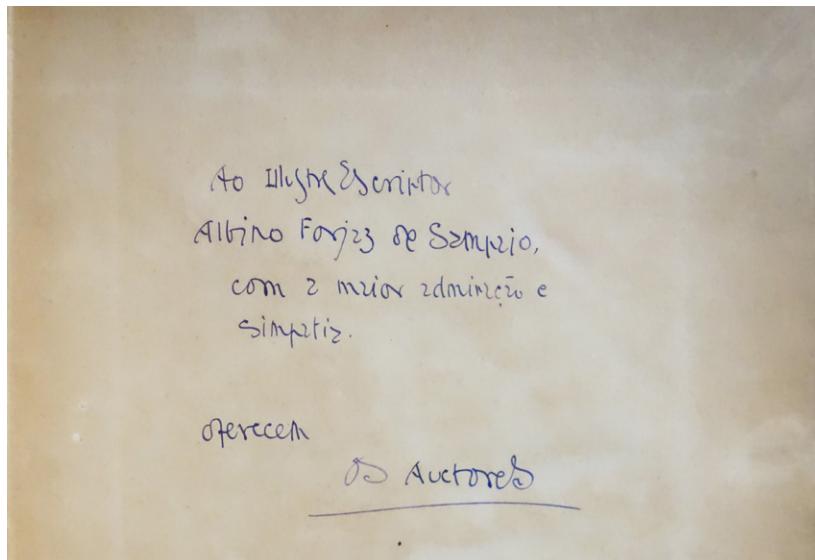

The first 9 items in this list contain interesting presentation inscriptions from António Botto to Albino Forjaz de Sampaio in Botto's bold and distinctive hand. The final item was presented by Botto to a member of the Forjaz de Sampaio family. Albino Maria Pereira Forjaz de Sampaio (1884-1949) was a member of the Academia das Ciências de Lisboa. He wrote and edited a large number of books; among the most noteworthy are the 4-volume História da literatura portuguesa ilustrada, and the catalogue of his collection of Portuguese theater: Subsídios para a História do Teatro Português. Teatro de Cordel (Catálogo da Colecção do autor), published by the Academy of Sciences in 1922. His Palavras Cínicas was perhaps the greatest bestseller in twentieth-century Portugal, with 46 editions by the time of his death. A passionate bibliophile, there is a catalogue of the auction sale of his library, Catálogo da importante e valiosa biblioteca do ilustre escritor ... Albino Forjaz de Sampaio ... a venda em leilão ... 11 de junho de 1945 na Liquidadora Fuertes ... sob a direcção de Arnaldo Henriques de Oliveira. For Forjaz de Sampaio, see Maria Amélia Gomes in Machado, ed., Dicionário de literatura portuguesa, p. 432; António Leitão in Biblos, IV, 1076-7; Dicionário cronológico de autores portugueses, III, 310-1; Grande encyclopédia, XI, 628.

Illustrations by António Carneiro. Additional illustrations by António de Brederode Amorim and António Quaresma.* Lisbon: Typographia do Annuário Commercial, 1919. Large 4° (18.5 x 14.6 cm.), original illustrated paper boards; slight wear to spine; some soiling. Title page in red, purple and black, with border; woodcut ornaments in black and red in text. (30 ll.). $1,200.00

FIRST EDITION, nicely illustrated and printed. Inscribed by the author in his bold, distinctive hand,

* Almeida Marques 167. Not Biblioteca Nacional, António Botto, which only cites the 1928 second edition, and no printed book earlier than 1921. Not in Serpa. On Botto, see Dicionário cronológico de autores portugueses, III, 503-6; Fernando Cabral Martins in Machado, ed., Dicionário de literatura portuguesa, p. 71; Carlos Mendes de Sousa in Biblos, I, 728-35; and Saraiva & Lopes, História da literatura portuguesa (16th ed.) pp. 1040, 1160, 1162. NUC: MH; second edition, Lisbon 1928, only at NNU.

Item 1

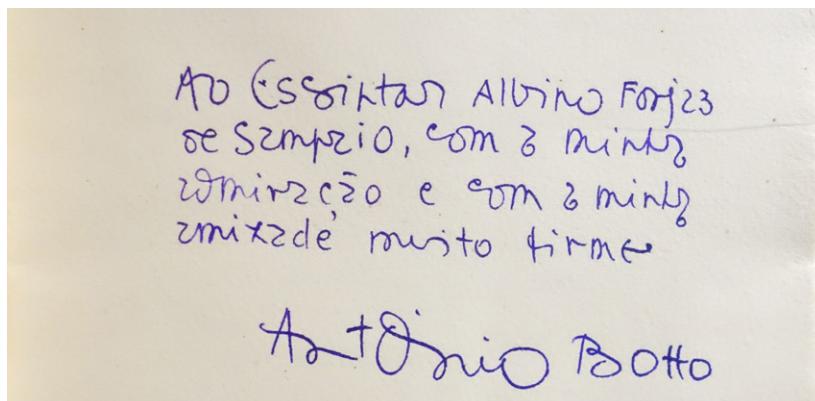

Controversial Work Defended by Fernando Pessoa

*2. BOTTO, António. Canções. Segunda edição muito aumentada com um retrato do auctor, palavras de Teixeira de Pascoaes. Lisbon: "Olisipo" Sociedade Editora, 1922. 8°, original printed wrappers (some foxing). Front cover printed in green and black. Publisher's logo on first leaf recto. Floral vignette on title page. Uncut. In very good to fine condition. Author's signed ink manuscript presentation inscription on first leaf recto "Ao Escriptor Albino Forjaz // de Sampaio, com a minha // admiração e com a minha // amizade muito firma // Antonio Botto". 38 unnumbered ll., of which the 2nd, 4th, 36th, and 38th are blank, with black & white photograph of Botto (the earlier, more scandalous version) tipped on to the recto of the 11th leaf, on which is printed "Da casa Bobone Ltd." $1,000.00

Second edition, much enlarged from the first; it has 26 poems where the first had only 16, includes comments on Botto by Teixeira de Pascoaes, and comments by Jayme Balsemão that differ from those printed in the first edition. It was said to have been rather brutally suppressed shortly after publication. The work and its author were attacked, then defended by Fernando Pessoa. The photograph in this copy is the original one which was considered flagrant at the time of publication (showing the author with bare shoulders), and which was responsible for much of the fuss. Many copies have a more politically correct photograph substituted.

The title on the front cover reads "Canções. Segunda edição muito aumentada com um retrato do auctor, palavras de Teixeira de Pascoaes, e novas referencias por Jayme de Balsemão."

* Serpa 126. Almeida Marques 164. Not in Biblioteca Nacional, António Botto. See Dicionário cronológico de autores portugueses, III, 503-6; Fernando Cabral Martins in Machado, ed., Dicionário de literatura portuguesa, p. 71; and Carlos Mendes de Sousa in Biblos, I, 728-35. Saraiva & Lopes, História da literatura portuguesa (1976) p. 1080. NUC: InU, MoSW, MH. OCLC: 558049959 (British Library). Porbase locates four copies: three in the Biblioteca Nacional de Portugal, and one in the Biblioteca Geral da Universidade de Coimbra. Jisc adds University of Liverpool Library and repeats British Library.

Large 4° (18.5 x 14.6 cm.), original illustrated paper boards. Title page in red and black, with border; woodcut ornaments in black and red in text. Second edition, nicely illustrated and printed. Inscribed by the author in his bold, distinctive hand. Accompanied by a 2-page a.l.s. from Botto to Forjaz de Samapio, in an envelope hand addressed by Botto, describing this edition. This is one of the most important early works by Botto.
